Agenda Item: Reappointment to Emergency Management Board

Submitted by: Michael R. Brown, Mayor
Prepared by: Spencer Halvorson, Project Coordinator

Staff Recommended Action: Confirm the reappointment of Danny Weigel to serve as the City Council representative on the Emergency Management Board

Committee Recommended Action: Moved to Council with the recommendation to approve

Council Action: Approved unanimously on consent agenda

BACKGROUND:

- The Emergency Management Board is composed of three Public-At-Large representatives, one Grand Forks City Council representative, and one Grand Forks County Commission representative. This will be a one year term set to expire on January 1, 2021.

ANALYSIS AND FINDINGS OF FACT:

- Council Member Weigel was previously the City Council representative on the Emergency Management Board and County Commission Chair Diane Knauf currently serves as the Grand Forks County Commission representative. Mayor Brown recommends reappointing Council Member Weigel to serve as the City Council representative on the Board.

SUPPORT MATERIALS:

- Letter of recommendation from Mayor Michael Brown

To: Grand Forks City Council

From: Michael R. Brown, Mayor

I recommend reappointing Council Member Danny Weigel to serve as the City Council representative on the Emergency Management Board. His professional background in public safety makes him a valuable asset to the Emergency Management Board and allows him to provide meaningful insights to the Emergency Management Office and Board.
